

Horace

Vauthrin

Died

Feb 12, 1983

Services were Saturday for Horace Vauthrin, 84, who died last week Thursday at Marshall County Care Facility. Services were held at 11 a.m. at Melbourne United Methodist Church with the Rev. Frank Schultz in charge. Burial followed in the Melbourne cemetery.

Anne Sweeney was organist and Ken Nason was soloist at the service.

Pallbearers were Rex White, Ralph White, Eldon Horn, Laurence Halter, Gary Cooper, and Stan Randall. The American Legion Hauser-Diggins Post 161 presented the flag to the family.

Mr. Vauthrin was born December 15, 1898, in Eden Township, the son of Victor and Anna Richards Vauthrin.

He was graduated from Melbourne High School in 1915. During World War I, he served in the U.S. Army in the Philippines.

He farmed most of his adult life, retiring in 1964.

Mr. Vauthrin served the area in a number of capacities. A separate article about his many services appears elsewhere in this issue.

He was married to Alma Floy Oler September 8, 1921, in Marshalltown. His widow survives, also two children, Joyce (Mrs. Milo) Knutson, Ellsworth, and Neil Vauthrin, Cedar Rapids; a brother, Glen Vauthrin, Melbourne; a sister, Vera Anderson, Marshalltown; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one brother.

The Ryan Davis Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
