

DEATH AT RHODES.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Walker Passes Away of Cancer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Jane Walker, who died at her home in Rhodes Friday, were held from the Methodist Protestant church in Rhodes Sunday afternoon. Burial followed in the Dunker cemetery four miles south of State Center.

Mrs. Walker, who was the widow of Charles F. Walker, who died seventeen years ago, had been a resident of the county about forty years. Most of this time has been spent near Melbourne and Rhodes. Mrs. Walker had made her home in Rhodes for the past twelve years. She was a native of Pennsylvania.

Surviving Mrs. Walker are six children. They are Lester Walker, of State Center; Charles and Fred Walker and Mrs. A. F. Pike, of Rhodes; Milton Walker, of Glenwood; and Mrs. Seth Smith, of Koshkonong, Mo.
