

Died Nov 6, 1982
W.E. Watson,
State Center,
Buried Monday

STATE CENTER—William E. Watson, widely known retired State Center business man, died Saturday at his home. His services were held at 1 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Mary Hendrickson in charge. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery.

Active bearers were John Starn, Robert Spessard, Donald Nichols, James Peters, James Maish and Philip Buck. Honorary bearers were Emmet Wickersham, H.L. Brown, Harold Hilleman, Howard Tuttle and James Hemphill. Masonic rites were held Sunday afternoon at the Wensel-Perrin Funeral Home.

He was born Feb. 10, 1900, the son of William and Pauline Tummel Watson. He received his education in the State Center schools.

He was married May 22, 1928, to Harriett MacRae in Humeston and they made their home in State Center, where he was in the insurance and grocery business for many years. Mrs. Watson preceded him in death in 1964. He also was preceded in death by five brothers and one sister.

Surviving are two daughters, Betty (Mrs. James) Bagnall, Marshalltown, and Pauline (Mrs. Roger) Gray, State Center; a son, William Watson Jr., Ames; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Watson was a member of the Presbyterian Church and Terrestrial Lodge 276, AF & AM, and had served as secretary of the State Center school board.

In Memory Of
William E. Watson
Born: February 10, 1900
Marshall County, Iowa
Entered Into Rest
November 6, 1982
At Home
Services
First Presbyterian Church
1:00 P.M., February 8th
Clergy
Rev. Mary Hendrickson
Special Music
Mrs. Earl Reimenschneider
Interment
Hillside Cemetery

Honorary Bearers
Harold Hilleman H.L. Brown
James Hemphill Howard Tuttle
E.C. Wickersham

Pallbearers
Robert Spessard John Starn
Donald Nichols Phillip Buck
James Teeters James Maish

Wensel-Perrin Service

Obituary Died Nov 6 - 1982
William E. Watson

Services were Monday at the First Presbyterian Church for William E. Watson, 82, who died Saturday at his home. The Rev. Mary Hendrickson was in charge and burial followed in Hillside Cemetery.

Active bearers were John Starn, Robert Spessard, Donald Nichols, James Peters, James Maish and Philip Buck. Honorary bearers were Emmet Wickersham, H.L. Brown, Harold Hilleman, Howard Tuttle and James Hemphill. Masonic rites were held Sunday afternoon at the Wensel-Perrin Funeral Home.

He was born February 10, 1900, the son of William and Pauline Tummel Watson. He received his education in the State Center schools.

He was married May 22, 1928, to Harriett MacRae in Humeston and they made their home in State Center, where he was in the insurance and grocery business for many years. Mrs. Watson preceded him in death in 1964. He also was preceded in death by five brothers and one sister.

Surviving are two daughters, Betty (Mrs. James) Bagnall, Marshalltown, and Pauline (Mrs. Roger) Gray, State Center; a son, William Watson Jr., Ames; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Watson was a member of the Presbyterian Church and Terrestrial Lodge 276, AF & AM, and had served as secretary of the State Center school board.