

May 19, 1957
Former Area Man paper
Buried In Seattle

RHODES — (Special) —
Friends have learned of the death of James Weeks, 70, at Seattle, Wash., where burial has been made.

Mr. Weeks, son of Henry M. and Clara J. Weeks, was born and reared in Rhodes but had lived in the western states for many years. He married Miss Kittie McCloskey, who died in 1928. Later he married Mrs. Blanche Hammer of Newton.

Surviving are the widow; four daughters, Mrs. Maurice Rector, Inglewood, Calif.; Mrs. Harry Julsgard, Cedar Rapids;

Mrs. Walter Brown, Miramonte, Calif., and Miss Shirley Weeks, Rhodes; a stepson and step-daughter and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Kent and Mrs. Katie Baker of Minneapolis, Minn.