Former Rhodes Man Dies In Virginia

Word has been received of the death of Wayne Weishaar, 59, McLean, Va., formerly of Rhodes, at his office in Washington, D.C., where he was secretary-treasurer of the Aeronautical Training Society. His unexpected death was apparently due to a heart attack.

Mr. Weishaar was the son of Ernest and Maude Weishaar of Rhodes and was graduated from the Rhodes High School in 1914. He is survived by his mother, the widow and one son, Sumner Wayne, all of McLean.

He was formerly city editor of the Des Moines Register, staff writer for the Register and Tribune and for the Associated Press. He went to Washington in 1944.

Services will be Friday morning in Washington with burial in Falls Church, Va.
