

Receive word

of death

July 1, 1984

Saturday, Mrs. Louise Hix received word of the tragic death of her son-in-law, Richard Wetrich and granddaughter, Jennifer. Following a boating accident on the Iowa River near Iowa City on Friday evening, 37-year-old Richard was pronounced dead on arrival at the University Hospitals at Iowa City. Eleven-year-old Jennifer's body has not been found as of this date.

Richard is survived by his wife, the former Meriam Hix, and daughter, Michelle. Funeral services for him were held Wednesday morning at Iowa City. Jennifer had spent last week visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hix in Melbourne, and returned to Iowa City on Thursday.
