LARRY DEAN WHITLATCH

Knoxville

Larry Dean Whitlatch was born on August 30, 1948 in Knoxville, Iowa the son of Frank and Elizabeth (Smith) Whitlatch. He graduated from Melcher High School. He served his country as a member of the United States Army during the Viet Nam Conflict.

Larry worked for many years at the Armstrong Tire and Rubber Company in Des Moines, he then worked for AEA for several years in Maintenance before his health forced his early retirement.

Larry enjoyed being an avid Iowa Hawkeye fan, spending time helping his neighbors, gardening and spending time with his grandchildren. He always had a witty sense of humor that was enjoyed by all.

Larry Dean Whitlatch passed away on Saturday May 23, 2009 at his residence in Bondurant, Iowa at the age of 60.

Those left to mourn his passing are his daughter Shelly Warrick and her husband John of Prairie City, Iowa. His grandchildren: Connor, Colton, and Dylan Warrick, his twin brother Gary Whitlatch, brother David Whitlatch, his mother Louise Meyers, and many nieces, nephews, and friends.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday May 27, 2009 at the Williams Funeral Home in Knoxville. Inurnment will be at a later date in Dallas Cemetery. Visitation with the family present will be held on Wednesday from 9 a.m. until service time at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to the Animal Rescue League or the Melcher-Dallas Community School Athletic Department in Larry's name.
