

<http://www.nevada-iowa-journal.com/site/news.cfm?brd=2033>

September 24, 2004

Wilma Maxine Johnson

April 14, 1925 to Sept. 14, 2004

NEVADA - Wilma Maxine Johnson, 79, of Nevada died Tuesday, September 14, 2004 at Mary Greeley Medical Center.

Funeral service was held Saturday at Salem Lutheran Church in Radcliffe, Iowa. Burial was in the Radcliffe Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Salem Lutheran Church.

The Bacon Funeral Home in Nevada in charge of arrangements.

Maxine was born April 14, 1925 in Radcliffe, Iowa the daughter Milt William and Emelia Josephine (Valland) Wierson. She graduated from Radcliffe High School in 1942. Maxine was united in marriage to James Marion Johnson in Radcliffe on May 24, 1947. He preceded her in death December 29, 1998. Maxine had taught country public school in Salem and Lincoln Townships for 9 years. For 25 years, Maxine worked as the ward clerk at Story County Hospital. She was a member of the Memorial Lutheran Church.

She is survived by her daughter: Sonia Rae (Brent) Mueller of Iowa City, Iowa; two sons: Steven James Johnson of Radcliffe, Iowa, William Rando (Anne) Johnson of Fulton, MO; 6 granddaughters: Heather Johnson, Courtney Johnson, Lindsay Mueller Kain, Megan Mueller, Signe Mueller and Kari Mueller; 2 sisters: Thelma Elwick of Radcliffe, Iowa, Janet Hadley of Union, Iowa; and a brother: Wallace Wierson of Excelsior, MN.

Maxine was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a brother, Orlan Thomas Wierson and a sister, Grace Tvedt.

©Nevada Journal 2004