PAUL T. WILLIAMS, 92

Paul T. Williams, 92, of Marshalltown, died early Tuesday morning, April 14th, at the MMSC.

Funeral services were held Friday, April 17th, at the Central Christian Church with Rev. Gail Thiessen officiating. He was laid to rest with full military honors by the VFW Harry C. Harter Post #839. For condolences, please visit

Born on December 13th, 1916, near Marshalltown, he was the son of William E. and Amelia (Carter) Williams. He graduated from the Marshalltown High School's Class of 1934. At a young age, at the Niederhauser Airfield, he met his future wife, Rachel Haire. The two were united in marriage on April 22, 1941, and they made Marshalltown their home following his military service.

Paul served our country honorably in the United States Army during WWII, and was stationed in Italy. He was a born leader and served as a captain over men in Georgia and overseas. Upon his return to the states, he was a finish carpenter and later foreman for commercial construction, being involved with building projects including MMSC, Wolfe Eye Clinic and several schools in Iowa. Paul was a member of the Central Christian Church and enjoyed his family, gardening, fishing, building things and reading.

Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Rachel; three sons, Bruce David (Sharon) Williams of Minneapolis and their family, Todd (Anid) Williams and Julie (Steve) Manuel (Elena and Eric); Clayton (Ann) Williams of Marshalltown and their children, Eric Williams (Hayden, Evan and Emma) and Emily Williams; Kevin (Julie) Williams of Marshalltown and daughter, Amie (Adam) Sutherland (Aaron and one on the way); grandchildren, Matt Rubenthaler (Allison, Derek and Brooke), Jason Frost (Jordin, Brody and Coby), Shane (Maria) Frost (Angelin and Matthew) and step-granddaughter, Shannon Hunsaker; as well as nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

In death he has rejoined his parents; brother, William "Bill" Jr.; daughter, Phyllis Diane Hunsaker; sisters, Lucinda Draper and Garrah Schaper and step-grandson, Dalton Hunsaker.
