

ROBERT T. WILSON, 73

Robert T. Wilson, 73 of Whitten, entered into eternal life Monday, March 31, 2008 at the Grandview Heights Care Center. Funeral services were held Friday, April 4th at the Whitten Community Church. Burial followed in the Benson Cemetery, rural Whitten. In lieu of flowers, his family requests a green plant donation or a memorial contribution be directed to the Whitten Fire Dept. or the Benson Cemetery Memorial Fund. Condolences may also be sent to his family at www.vogelfuneral-homes.com. The Biersborn Funeral Home in Union is caring for Robert and his family.

Robert was born on May 27, 1934, in Rockford, IA, the son of Samuel and Maude (Taylor) Wilson. He grew in the area of his birth and graduated from high school in 1952. He was united in marriage to Joyce Elaine Koch and to this marriage two sons were born. The couple lived in Holland and later Grundy Center where Robert owned and operated Wilson Welding and Repair prior to being employed as a welder at various businesses in Grundy County. He was also employed as a road grader for Grundy County for several years. In 1973, he purchased a farm east of Whitten and farmed there until his retirement. Robert was a board member of the Benson Cemetery Association.

Surviving are his two sons, Don K. Wilson of Union and Kenneth E. (JoAnn) Wilson of LeNoir City, TN; a sister, Mona Schwark of Union; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

In eternal life, Robert joins his parents; his wife, Joyce; and a half-brother, John Jensen.
