

Margaret T. Campbell

Died Oct. 14, 2001

Margaret T. Campbell, 82, of Cambridge, died at her home on Oct. 14 from lung disease.

She was born in Farrar, where she was raised and graduated from high school. She also lived in Mingo and in Nevada from 1960 to 1964. She lived as a homemaker. She belonged to St. Mary's Holy Cross Catholic Church and St. Mary's altar and rosary society.

Campbell

Survivors include four daughters, Kaye Byers of Winsfield, Mo., JoAnn Moody of Cambridge, Jean Rumbaugh of Maxwell and Sue Campbell of Cambridge; three sons, Francis Campbell of Baxter, Mike Campbell of Slater and Jim Campbell of Reno, Nev.; 26 grandchildren; 47 great-grandchildren; and one brother, Ed Winslow of Altoona.

Her husband, Gale; two infant children; her parents; one brother; two sisters; one grandchild and one great-grandchild preceded her in death.

Services were held Wednesday, Oct. 17, at St. Mary's Holy Cross Catholic Church in Elkhart. Burial was at the Holy Cross Cemetery in rural Farrar. A memorial fund will be established by her family. Ankeny Funeral Home handled arrangements.

d. 10-14-2001

Nevada
Journal
10-18-2001