Funeral Services Held Here Monday Afternoon

In the death of John J. Hattery, which occurred at his home northeast of Collins shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday morning, Jan. 10, the community has lost another highly respected citizen and pioneer—a man whose friends were as numerous as his acquaintances.

Mr. Hattery had served the community faithfully and well in many positions of trust and responsibility, and the citizens grieve with the family in his passing.

Death came to Mr. Hattery after a long illness, heart complications being the cause of his death.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Collins Methodist church, and were in charge of the pastor, the Rev. John Adamson.

Music was furnished by a double quartet composed of Mrs. A. L. Pitcher, Mrs. O. H. Geahart, Mrs. O. N. Serbein, Mrs. G. C. Fish, J. R. Witmer, E. R. Cope, C. O. Shearer, and J. G. Gingles, with Mrs. E. R. Cope as accompanist.

Interment was in Evergreen cemetery, and the Masonic burial ceremony was in charge of Wm. C. Heintz. Pall bearers were G. F. Holland, Noah Hyatt, Elsworth Campbell, B. F. Shenkle, B. L. Mead and J. W. Thompson.

OBITUARY

John J. Hattery, son of Charles and Margaret Hattery, was born in Linton, Indiana, February 1, 1856, and died at his home north of Collins January 10, 1931. Had he lived until February 1, he would have been 75 years of age. His early life was spent on a farm near Linton, Indiana.

On October 20, 1886 he was married to Margaret Brawand at Bloomfield, Indiana. They made their home near Linton until 1886 when they came to Iowa, and located on their farm near Collins.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and nine children, Mrs. Eva Butler of Ames, Mrs. Rella Berry of Joice, Mrs. Mattie Haas of Rhodes, John R. of Nevada, Mrs. Margaret Biney of Woodward, Lowell of Mingo, and Charles, Carrie and Ralph of Collins. An infant son and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Landers preceded him in death. Her daughter, Betty Jean Landers, has made her home with her grandparents since the death of her mother. Besides his children he leaves seventeen grandchildren who feel the loss of their grandfather.

Three sisters, Mrs. Lucinda Pope of Bedford, Indiana, Mrs. Belle Boughn of Lyons, Indiana, Mrs. Mary Fainott of Linton, Indiana, and a brother Seth of Hamlin, Arkansas still survive their brother.

Mr. Hattery had been a member of the Collins Methodist church for many years.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, having joined about forty-five years ago, just before coming to Iowa. He has taken an active part in the local organization and was one of the first members of the Order of the Eastern Star of Collins.
