FAY CHARLOTTE MARRS
Fay Charlotte Marrs, 46, of Collins, died of cancer Friday, March 9, 1984, at the Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines.

Services were held at 11 a.m. Monday, March 12, at the Collins United Methodist Church with the Rev. Nancy Schultz officiating. Burial will be at the Clear Lake Cemetery at 11 a.m. Tuesday, March 13.

Fay Charlotte Holmes was born to Harry and Esther Holmes in Clear Lake on Nov. 5, 1937. She graduated from Clear Lake High School in 1955.

On Nov. 19, 1973, she married Jon Marrs. She had lived in Collins for the past 10 years, and was a secretary for the Crouse Cartage Co. in Des Moines. She was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Marrs is survived by her husband, Jon; two sons, Allyn Roberts of West Des Moines and Kevin Roberts of Collins; two daughters, Debra Roberts of Altoona and Renee Marrs of Collins; her mother, Esther Holmes of Clear Lake; two brothers, Lindy L. Holmes of Rolla, Mo., and Harry M. Holmes of Aurora, Colo.; one sister, May Hansen of Clear Lake; and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father and one infant brother.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the American Cancer Society. Ryan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

---

Marsh, Curtis L. Jr.  d. April 13, 1992

Curtis L. Marsh, Jr.

Nov. 18, 1927, to April 13, 1992

Curtis L. Marsh, Jr., 64, of Greensboro, N.C., died of heart failure at his home.

He was born to Curtis L. Marsh, Sr., and Alice Hainz Marsh near Collins. After graduating from Collins High School, he worked on the U.S. Navy's project, and graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in electrical engineering. He later moved to Greensboro, N.C., where he worked as an Engineer for the Western Electric Company until his retirement.

Survivors include three sons, Curtis and Rick, both of Greensboro, N.C.; two grandsons, three brothers, James Marsh and Michael of Wilmington, N.C.; two sisters, Jean Jewell of Colton, Calif., and four sisters, What Lewis of Colton, Kathy Maxwell of Indianapolis, Ind., and Marilyn Pagne of Cave Creek, Ariz.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A memorial service was held at sunset and his ashes were scattered at sea of the coast of Wilmington, N.C.