Collins Gazette

Vilda Mae Thompson, daughter of the late John W. and Linnie Thompson, was born at Story County Hospital, Story County, Iowa on Dec. 14, 1891. She spent her early years here and later moved to a farm near Collins. After attending Highland Park School, she attended Collins High School, graduating in 1914. She married Leonard L. Hoskins, who passed away at Story County Hospital, Story County, Iowa on Oct. 19, 1946. Vilda Mae passed away at the age of 60 years, five months and six days after a long illness of several years. She left behind a loving husband, Leonard, and a daughter, the three children were born in the Collins community. She was married to Leonard in 1914, taking an active part in the affairs of the community. To this union were born three sons and two daughters, one son and a daughter died in infancy. She leaves to mourn her passing two sons and a daughter.
She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband; the two sons, Lowell of near Collins and Gale of Des Moines; and a granddaughter Jennifer Sue; two sisters, Mrs Henry Dodd of Collins and Mrs Frank Scott of Omaha, Neb.; a brother, John O. Thompson also of Collins, as well as many more distant relatives.

She was a member of the Collins Church of Christ and its auxiliaries, a charter member of the F. and N. club, taking an active part in all as long as her health permitted. Her life was spent in this community and because of her thoughtfulness and many acts of kindness throughout the years, she made a host of friends who deeply regret her passing.
