Beulah May Shields Howell, daughter of Anderson and Minnie Loo Sheldon Shields, was born on May 4, 1893 at Iowa Center, Iowa.

She received her schooling in Maxwell and graduated with the class of 1912. She attended Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls, and then taught school until her marriage to Ray Howell on August 28, 1917. To this union one son, Dean of Nevada, was born. Mr. and Mrs. Howell lived their entire married life in their present home.

Mrs. Howell was affiliated with the church all of her life. In early years she joined the then Evangelical Church at Iowa Center, later she was a member of the Presbyterian Church and for the last nine years a faithful member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Loring.

Mrs. Howell has been in failing health for some time and has been under the constant care of her doctor. After a short period of intense illness, she passed on to be with her God, on Tuesday evening, July 28, 1959 at the age of 66 years, 2 months and 24 days. She was preceded in death by her parents, one sister and two brothers.

She leaves to mourn her passing her husband, Ray, her son, Dean and his wife, Maxine and two grandchildren, Raymond and Nancy. Also three sisters, Neva Steward of Des Moines, Mary Winterrowd of Alhambre, Calif., Florence Fish of Collins, Iowa, and two brothers, Sheldon Shields of Julesburg, Colo., and Carleton Shields of Palm Springs, Calif. Also many nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon, July 31, at 2 p.m. at the Loring E. U. B. Church with her pastor, Rev. E. R. Walter officiating.

Kelly C. Howell, 76, of Mitchellville died of a heart ailment Tuesday at Veterans Medical Center. Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Word of Life Assembly of God, and burial will be in Franklin Township Cemetery.

Mr. Howell, a retired truck driver, was born in Paris, Mo., and lived in Mitchellville most of his life. He was a veteran of the Army and a member of the Assembly of God.

Surviving are his wife, Esther; a daughter, Susan Greenhorn of Bondurant; three sons, Jerry of Collins, Steve of Des Moines and Randy of Burlington; three sisters, Wilma Poston of Crossville, Tenn., Doris Heath of Lake Suzy, Fla., and Ferne Powell of Carbondale, Kan.; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
