Survivors include his wife Edith; four daughters, Kathy Bender of Adel, Jeanne Pierce of Maxwell, Barbara Despres of Bradenton, Fla., and Diane Rusk of Toledo, Ohio; six grandchildren, two step grandchildren; three sisters, Mabel Pyle of Baxter, Ruth Cummings and Alice Long of Maxwell, and two brothers, Dale Huffaker of Baxter and Richard Huffaker of Bayard.

Obituary of J. H. Huffaker.

Funeral services for J. H. Huffaker, who died at Independence, Sunday were held from the Willow Creek church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Elder J. F. Minton of Des Moines.

A mixed choir chosen from Collins churches furnished music, accompanied by Mrs. O. B. Patterson.

Jacob Huffaker was born Mar. 11, 1863 near Princeton, Ill. Here he grew to manhood and married Jane C. Breedon June 28, 1876. They continued to live near Princeton for twelve years, when they moved to Marshalltown, Ia., thence to Bird City, Kansas, thence to Zeiring, Iowa, and in 1898 settled on a farm in the south west corner of Marshall County, Ia., where they have since resided.

Mr. Huffaker is survived by his widow and five children: Mrs. Walter Pitcher, Miss Moe Huffaker, Harrison H., and Cyrus F., all of Collins, and J. M. Huffaker of Marshalltown. One brother Cyrus, of Princeton, Ill. and one sister, Mrs. Sophia Zeiring of Fort Worth, Texas, also survive, but neither were able to come at this time.

Attending the funeral from a distance were Mrs. Cyrus Huffaker and two sons, of Princeton, Ill., J. M. Huffaker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roupe, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spratt, Mrs. Geo. Pitcher and Mr. George Pitcher, of Marshalltown.

The neighbors and friends of the deceased wish to express their sincere sympathy for the bereaved relatives.
