H. H. HUFFAKER
FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services were held at the Collins Church of Christ Sunday afternoon for the late Harrison H. Huffaker, 58, who passed away Friday after an illness of several months. The Rev. Wm. Stevens of Washington, Ia., was in charge.

The services were largely attended, for Mr. Huffaker was a man highly esteemed by all, and it was a saddening shock to the community when news of his death was learned.

Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson, Miss Calla Wood, G. E. Holmes and T. E. Huntrods, with Mrs. Hugh Fertig as pianist. The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. Milton-Hale and Mrs. Frances Butler.

Pallbearers were Ray Evans, Will Evans, Ray Brown, Myrl Brown, E. S. Haas and Everett Ball. Interment was in Collins Evergreen cemetery.

(The Gazette hopes to print the complete obituary next week.)

Des Moines Register
8-17-1939
Henry Harrison Huffaker, eldest son of J. W. and Jazma Huffaker, was born May 16, 1881, at Princeton, Ill. He resided over 58 years and 3 months. At the age of six he came with his parents to Marshalltown, Iowa. Returning to Iowa they then resided in Bird City Kans. which they called home since that time. He graduated in Marshalltown and attended the College of Collins, Iowa. In 1910 he married Mrs. Vera Cooper of Iowa City. Mrs. Huffaker made her home there until her death. To this union were born six children: Faye, Leon, Harold, Richard, Ruth and Alfred. Mrs. Huffaker was a loving mother. She was preceded in death by her husband, and her sons Leon, Harold, and Richard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vera Huffaker, and their children Faye, Alfred, and Ruth. Her memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 22, at 2:00 PM at the Church of Collins, Iowa. The service will be followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. Vera Huffaker. All are welcome to attend.

Opal O. Howell, 53, passed away peacefully on October 20th. She was a beloved member of the Church of Collins, Iowa. She is survived by her husband, John, and their two children, Jim and Mary. The family will hold a private celebration of her life at the home of her husband. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Church of Collins, Iowa. She will be missed dearly.