Marce was born on October 18, 1914 in Marshalltown, Iowa, the daughter of Roy C. & Maude Adell (Ream) Warring. She grew up in Marshalltown and the Gettysburg, South Dakota areas where she graduated from the Gettysburg High School. She continued her education at the University of Iowa, receiving her degree in nursing. She married William H. Knaack, they later divorced. The family moved often due to William's military career. Kaye returned to Marshalltown in 1960 where she worked at the Marshalltown Hospital until retirement in 1979. She loved to travel, play cards (especially bridge) and was a member of the Central Christian Church and the Theta Chi Sorority. Kaye is survived by her son: William & wife DeAnne Knaack, Marshalltown, Iowa; a daughter: Cheryl DeWitt & significant other Rex Ageton, Chipita Park, Colorado; a sister: Andrea Stone, Marshalltown, Iowa; four grandchildren: Jim & wife Jean Knaack, Joel Knaack, Jennifer Knaack and Danielle & husband David Graham and one great grandchild. She was preceded in death by her parents.
