Cravens, Richard F.	Magill, Mary Ann	September 26, 1875	October 1, 1925 Thursday, Albany Ledger	Golden Wedding: Married at Lone Star by Worthy Jones a Justice of the Peace. Mr. Cravens came up to that locality from Clay County to visit his relatives, & after he had been there a short time took down with typhoid with other members of the family where he visited. One day later on he went to the funeral of a man he knew slightly, not having been in that locality long he did not know of the persons present at the funeral but saw a young lady, at first sight of whom, he vowed he would win her for his wife, if possible. That young lady was Mary Ann Magill. They have reared all their children, none of whom at present is living in this vicinity. There are 5 of them, as follows: Mrs. Katie L. Williams of Kansas City, Kansas; James of Buffalo, Wyoming; Charles & Virge of Huntley, Minn, & John of near Superior, Nebraska. Shortly after their marriage Mr. & Mrs. Craven bought a 120 acre tract, heavily wooded, which they cleared. Later they added 80 acres and it was on this farm they lived until they moved to Albany, MO a number of years ago.
